

CRITERIA FOR RE-ISSUING OF RADIOACTIVITY ANALYSIS CERTIFICATE

1. Applications for re-issuing of Radioactivity Analysis Certificate be submitted by the customer in writing explaining vividly the reason for corrections and re-issuing of the respective certificate.
2. Applications for re-issuing of certificates be accompanied with the original certificate.
3. Re-issuing of certificates will only be done if the customer exporting will request change of the name of the consignee or destination of the shipment.
4. Applications that will be requesting change of the entry/exit point are not accepted and therefore TAEC Officer receiving the application is responsible to inform the customer that the application will not be processed and that should submit new applications.
5. Applications for re-issuing of certificates for the purpose of changing any information on the certificate for importation will not be acceptable after the certificate has been issued.